

Haworth Zody LX Chair

Ergonomic office desk chair

Building on the legacy of Haworth's renowned Zody series, the Zody LX Chair integrates advanced ergonomic design with high-end materials. This fully upholstered office chair offers informed support and flexibility for a wide range of postures. Its durable construction and customisable features make it a versatile choice for anyone seeking a comfortable, fully adjustable office chair.

The optional dual posture feature provides informed comfort whether you are sitting or 'perching' – a transitional position perfectly suited for sit-to-stand desks.

With a selection of premium fabrics and a sleek, streamlined design, the Zody LX is equally at home in both commercial offices and residential spaces. This fully adjustable task chair delivers precise support, allowing users to customise it to their individual preferences.

Europlan proudly stocks the globally renowned furniture brand Haworth, alongside our own range of exceptional commercial office furniture.
