

Levita

Style Meets Smart Ergonomics.

Levita is a sophisticated reimagining of the executive chair, designed by acclaimed European furniture designer Trevor Hollard. Combining sleek aesthetics with advanced ergonomics, Levita delivers an intuitive, user-friendly experience for any professional setting.

Its self-weighted synchronised mechanism automatically adjusts to your body weight, providing effortless comfort without constant manual adjustments. Push-button seat controls make fine-tuning simple and precise, while high-quality moulded foams ensure durability and long-lasting support.

With a versatile crossover design, Levita is perfect for executive offices, meeting rooms, boardrooms, and task spaces. Locally built and upholstered in your choice of fabric, vinyl, or leather, Levita can be tailored to complement any interior style.
