

Proceed Lockers

Office locker and storage systems

Proceed lockers are ideal for schools, commercial and corporate offices as end of journey storage in locker rooms. Proceed Lockers have a sturdy steel construction with a durable powder coat finish, and feature ventilation slots to ensure food airflow. Lockers can be grouped individually or banked together.

You can rest easy when you purchase office locker systems from Europlan. Our design-led storage space options are adaptable and can blend with any aesthetic. Our solutions include technologically advanced and easy to use keyless locker systems, large jumbo lockers and laundry lockers. Our versatile range is sure to include ideal furniture for installation into your office, factories, warehouses, sports centres, schools and tertiary facilities

Europlan proudly stocks globally renowned storage brands such as Yellowbox, Hotbox, and PSU.
